SOCIAL

Where is the real Hammond High School? Is it only the social activities which make up the greater part of school life? Is it the thrill of a dance or a Homecoming bonfire that makes school complete? All agree that social activities play an important part in the life of a student, from the first soc-hop to the prom. Yet social life is only one piece of the puzzle, and fits only in its proper place.

THE TRADITIONAL FALL EVENT

HOMECOMING '59

As the blazing timbers burned, the students watched the 1959 Homecoming commence. The queen and her court were announced this night. They reigned the following night at the car parade and after-game sock hop. This gala celebration was climaxed by a sweeping victory over Hammond Tech.

But there is another story behind the one presented these two nights. It begins with many hours of hard work. A combined effort of Association and student body to present a successful Homecoming for all to enjoy.

The students watch anxiously as the queen and her court are announced.

Barbara Blackmun helps to advertise the Homecoming sock hop.

John Tweedle, President of Association, crowns Georgianna Dase Homecoming Queen, while Princesses Mary Jo Egnatz, Lynn Johnson, Kaydell Franklin, and Linda Paterson, look on. The boy: Mike Shale.

Homecoming Queen, Georgianna Dase.

The car parade brought new and colorful ideas.

Silhouetted against the bonfire, the cheerleaders led the students in the "Loyalty."

CHRISTMAS FANTASIA

"What do you think you're doing," jokingly laughs Mr. Christopher Argus, chaperon for the Winter Semi-Formal.

AMAHL

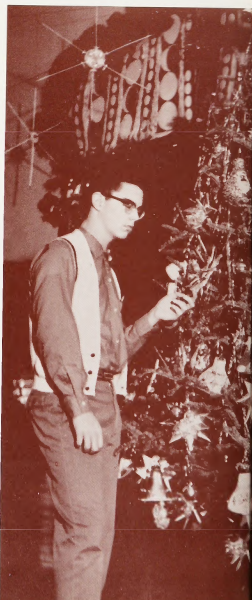

SIGNS OF CHRISTMAS

Christmas at Hammond High was made up of many things: the Vesper program, the auditorium session given by the vocal department, and the colorful displays furnished by the art department.

Holiday spirit ran rampant; the German club had a party and a puppet show; Future Nurses held a gift exchange, and the Red Cross carolled for St. Anne's.

Christmas trees brightly shone throughout the school. From the beautiful, glistening tree in the main hall to the scrawny bush trimmed with copy paper in the Publications Office, students held an interest in the holiday preparations.

In the main hall stands the traditional Christmas tree, decorated by art students and members of Expanded Arts Club under the sponsorship of Miss Olga Schubkegel.

Amahl (David Schumacher) stokes the fire.

Members of the press crowd around David Moore to interview him for their respective newspapers.

Ken Haulk and Jill Wilson, separated from Karen Kraay and Lorraine Urban, wonder what's going on in room 509.

A sleepy-eyed Karen Kraay answers the phone.

Karen Kraay and Lorraine Urban trap Tom Turpin.

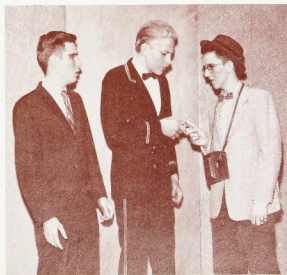

Karen Kraay has been studying mechanical courses via correspondence. Now some of her equipment has arrived through the mail, to the surprise of Tom Turpin and Lorraine Urban.

George Lumm gives Karen Kraay a box of candy as her aunt Lorraine Urban looks on.

"How much did Herb Norton tip Ken Hauk?" wonders Tom Turpin.

A group of junior girls chat about things to come.

The students take time out to eat.

UPPERCLASSMEN GO ON THE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

More than 100 students from Hammond High School gather to hear final directions before departing for Washington.

In Washington D. C., the students are taken by bus to points of interest.

PILGRIMAGE

Anxiously awaiting their yearbooks, students crowd into room II-A to receive their Dunes from Linda Carnowski and Mrs. Belva Argus at the annual "Signature Swing."

Taking time out to sign yearbooks is this group of exhausted students.

"SIG' SWING"

A committee consisting of Fran Conces and a group of '60 Dunes Staff members contributed their services to distribute the '59 yearbook. The signature swing was chaperoned by Mrs. Belva Argus, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Bowers, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schopp, Jr.

Hard working Association officers, Ave Colby, Vice-President; John Tweedle, President; and Linda Selzer, Recorder, helped coordinate Association activities throughout the school year.

SAFETY IN FUN AND EDUCATION

ASSOCIATION WEEK 1960

"Safety," was the theme of the 1960 Association Week. From a surprise on Monday, to Dress-Up Day on Friday, students participated in the activities offered by the Association. Tuesday, students sported school colors; Wednesday, one needed dark glasses as it was clash and flash day. Students could wear green and blue with red and white polka dots. Thursday everyone wore his class colors; Friday, students and teachers bought carnations to set off their Sunday-best fashions.

"Safti-in Italia" was the Association banquet, where spaghetti was enjoyed by all. And the wonderful week was climaxed at the Civic Center with a Bermuda Dance.

Flash and Clash Day brought Thelma Fisher, Ann Malone, and Barb Brooks to school like this.

Rich Marshall, Rich Goldyn, Nancy Novosel, Ave Colby, Doug Trolson, Linda Selzer, Mary Ellen Alt, John Tweedle, Dave Ebel, Tom Williams, and Carol Rodda talk about fine turn-out for the Association Banquet.

Meanwhile in the kitchen, some hungry students sample the spaghetti.

Posing in their new spring fashions, these people participate in Dress-Up Day.

Connie Leany, Whitney Lyman and Evelyn DeMik dress up for Association Week's annual Dress-Up Day, along with the many other students at Hammond High School.

Dave Hugus takes time out for some punch, as he and Dave Mueller serve the refreshments.

Sophomores: Judy Hodges, Phoebe Rhodes, and Beverly Bruno, dressed in Japanese costumes, serve the juniors and seniors.

FILLED WITH LASTING MEMORIES IS

PROM NIGHT

As the school year comes to a close, every junior and senior awaits the Prom, the top event on the social calendar.

Tradition has it that the juniors give the ball for the departing seniors, and the sophomores serve the refreshments. The night itself is one beautiful memory.

But the busiest days of the year precede the Prom.

For the boys, it means ordering flowers and asking father for the car, while the girls try to buy the dress which will stand out among the others.

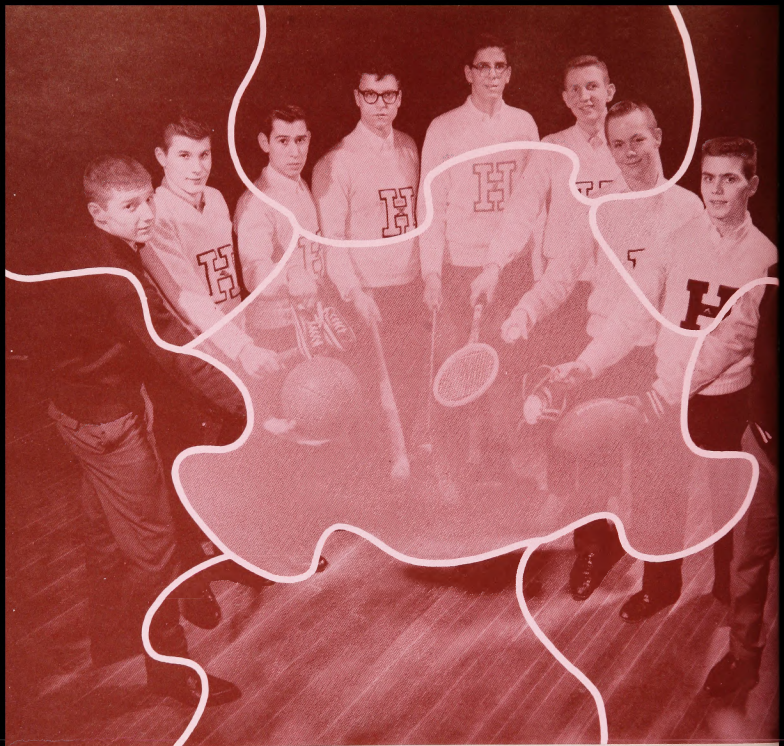

The committees are also hard at work. The hall must be rented, refreshments ordered, and decorations made. But all agree it is well worth it.

Some of the couples take time out from dancing, to have their pictures taken.

The seniors say good-bye to their last Prom, as the Grand March ends.

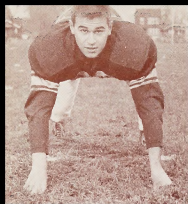

SPORTS

The individual is only a member of a team, like a piece of puzzle merely contributes to the whole. Without one piece, the picture is meaningless, but that one piece tells no story in itself. Excitement and screams of joy and victory show that players and spectators gave their best to games in various sports this year. All sports share an equal light in the eye of the students.

CLUBS

Clubs join together people of common interests. Every member contributes his part to give interest to fellow members. As each member works with his club, so each club works with the school. Hammond High School is continually adding new clubs to fit new interests and has established a club council to which each is represented. The Club Council works in close contact with the Association to plan activities to interest the entire student body.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT AT H.H.S.

OUR ASSOCIATION

Every student at Hammond High is a member of the Association. Even though we don't hold an office, we can all participate in activities sponsored by the Association.

The most important part of the Association is YOU, the student body. For how can we have a student government unless all of us are ready to share the responsibility?

NEW KNOWLEDGE THROUGH SCIENCE

To many, the study of science is merely a required course. But to the members of the science clubs, the study of science is not just another course, but a fascinating hobby. Activities sponsored by these clubs include field trips, discussions, and speakers.

All of these students are not scientists of the future, but the members gain a broader understanding of science.

THE POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

The purpose of the Political Science Club is to enlighten its members on the functions of government.

During the school year of 1959-60 the club carried on an active program, which included discussion of political theory and a series of speakers from the various branches of our local government.

All club members were expected to give their full support to the club through their respective committees, which were set up for that purpose.

First started last year, the club was called Young Politicians. The club decided to change the name to the Political Science Club. The Club is sponsored by Mr. Lynn Powell, of the Social Studies Department.

EXPANDED ARTS CLUB

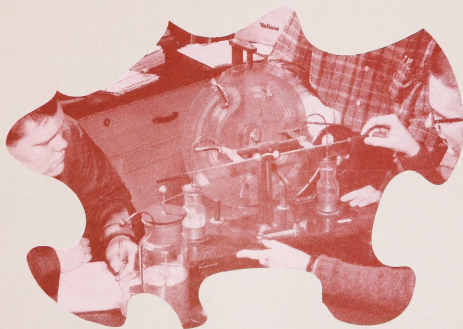

ACADEMIC

Any puzzle is made up of parts that individually mean little—but they are necessary to complete a picture. In the many groups that make up Academics there are individuals whose combined efforts are responsible for a science fair project, a concert, a creative writing project, and even a yearbook. Along with various projects comes recognition for outstanding students such as honor societies, D.A.R., and Girls' and Boys' State.

HERALD EDITORS

Lynn MacGowan, Newsbureau editor, and Nancy Ebert, Ad-manager, help Sue Argus check copy and lay-out pages.

Susan, Herald editor, furthered her knowledge of journalism by attending a summer institute at Michigan State University, and she has had three years of publication experience.

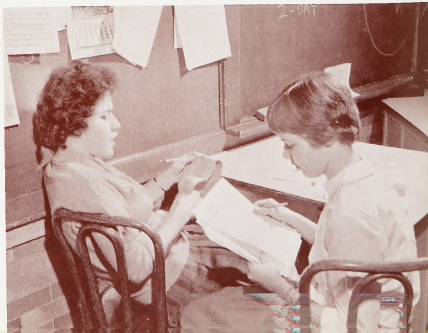

"STOP THE

Lynn MacGowan and Beverly Stanners combine their talents to proofread stories.

The Herald Staff, Terry Tieman, Starr Kearby, Larry Dorociak, and Don Dittrich, performs one of the many tasks, folding an endless number of Heralds.

THE Calumet

HERALD

HAMMOND (IND.) HIGH SCHOOL

Larry Dorociak and Beverly Stanners interview a monitor to get her opinion for the "Roving Reporter." This column gives current and often humorous opinions expressed by the students and teachers.

PRESSES!"

Mary Jo Egnatz types as Starr Kearby dictates the story to meet a current deadline. Each story is essential to keep the Hammond High student body informed. No newsworthy story is overlooked.

The guiding hand of every publication is the advisor. Mr. A. T. Bolt has had a successful career in journalism and imparts this knowledge to the staffs of the Dunes and Herald.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF AT WORK

The Dunes staff, headed by Linda Carnowski, planned a busy year to bring out the best book ever. New ideas were used — double-page layouts, a different I. D. picture identification method, and more candid shots of school life.

The staff worked hard to put out a yearbook which would tell the complete story of the year. Part of this job is getting a picture of every student and teacher in the book.

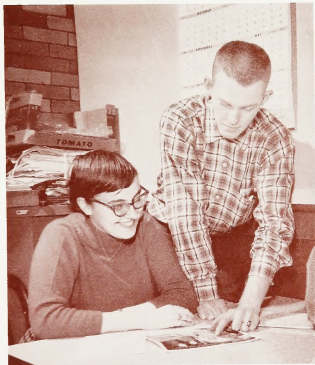

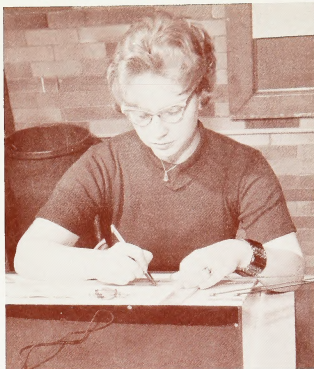

I.D. picture staff, Barb Brooks, Dennis Kuchel, Mary Joyce, and Judy Davidson, identify and lay out underclassmen's pictures.

Julie Schopp types senior activity blanks as Pam Wilson dictates.

Dunes Editor-in-chief, Linda Carnowski, carefully plans a layout, with pictures and copy. Linda, who has had three years of journalism experience, furthered her knowledge of journalism by attending a summer institute at Northwestern University last summer. Throughout the year Linda laid out pages, wrote copy, and generally supervised the make up of the yearbook.

Sue Selsor, junior editor, and Dave Barnett, staff photographer, check a club picture for names and copy. During the school year Dave could be seen standing on a desk, hanging over a rail, or sitting on the floor just to get a picture. Sue gained experience on this year's staff to make the next year's book better.

Dave Bowers, acting business manager, goes over copy to be used before sending ad pages to the publisher. The excellent cooperation of the local merchants was instrumental in the success of the book.

MATH 9

Math 9 is a special course offered to advanced students of math who are seniors entered in a four year math course. The class offers analytical geometry and introduction to calculus. The class is taught by Mr. Don Clark and meets fifth hour.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL NIGHT

Back-to-School Night gives parents an opportunity to meet teachers and to discover work expected from the students.

D.A.R.

The D.A.R. award for the first semester was presented to Nancy Scholl.

COLLEGE NIGHT

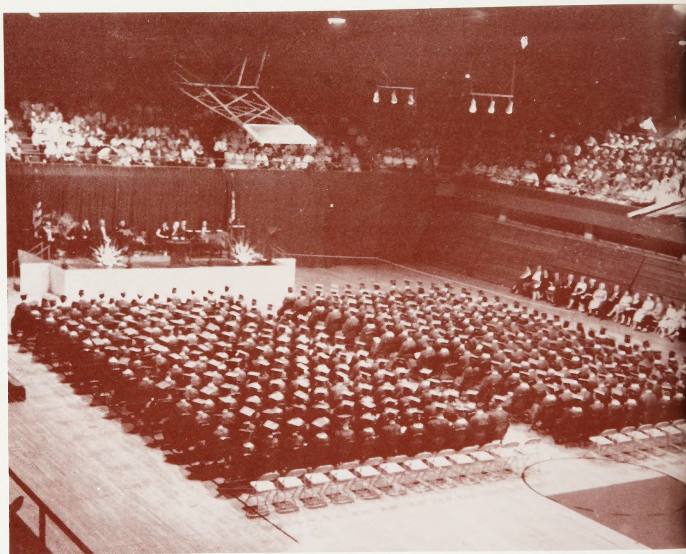

"What types of courses are offered here?" "How expensive is one year of college?" Such were the questions answered at the annual college night sponsored jointly by HHS and Morton. This event gives students an opportunity to discover courses and other information about colleges and universities throughout the U.S.A.

GRADUATION

The seniors sit waiting anxiously to hear their name called, so they can step up, shake the hand of their counselor, and take, in the other hand, the diploma. They will remember Grad-day for many years to come.

But they will also remember their years in high school; the basketball and football games, school parties, and the friends they have made here.

They will also remember the last minute studying for exams, the anticipation of report cards.

In later years many will return. It is only then they can tell how much high school meant to them. They may discover the teachers they thought were too hard, were actually doing it for their own good. For when they leave, the problem grows in magnitude.

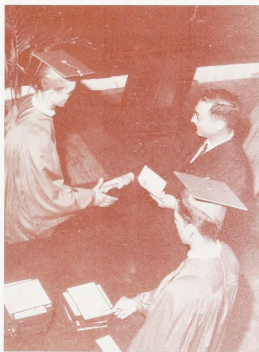

The moment has finally come for these students. As they enter the Civic Center to receive their diplomas, high school is in a different world.

The students stand in line to receive their diplomas.

Backs are turned to old school days and grads are faced with new problems in life.

Memories of the school years spent at H.H.S. flash by, as one receives the diploma.

PEOPLE

Out of the 2,000 students that make up Hammond High School, there is no single student. Together the student body brings to Hammond High School individual ideas and personalities. These students combine personalities and ideas to form a better school. Yet the individual is not lost; he takes his part among the others to lead or follow to the limit of his abilities. From the contacts with fellow students, pupils gain valuable insight for the years ahead. The "PEOPLE" make the school.

MR. ROBERT BROCK

VALEDICTORIAN

Valedictorian of the class of 1960, Herb Norton, maintained a high average which earned him membership in the National Honor Society; he was also vice-president of Ace of Clubs. Herb found time to join Camera Club, Electronics Club and Sci-Math Club. Also, he was founder and president of the Chess Club. Herb has participated in the Science Seminar, and the Illinois Tech math course. He completed a project for the science fair.

Herb plans to enter M.I.T. this fall, where he has already received a scholarship.

SALUTATORIAN

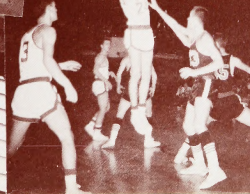

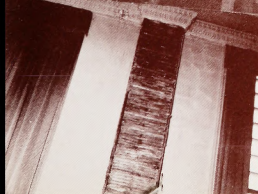

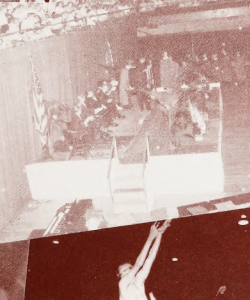

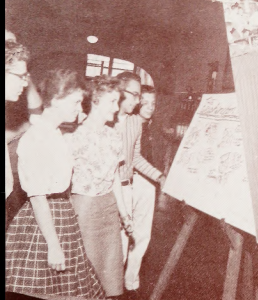

Bonnie Cadwalader holds a 97.18 average. Bonnie has been president of band, first chair clarinet, drum major for '59-'60 season, and accompanist; solo contest winner for piano and clarinet; District NISBOVA firsts, two state NISBOVA firsts. Bonnie has played in five small ensembles. She was treasurer of National Honor Society for 1½ years, member of Y-Teens, Ace of Clubs, and Biology Club. Bonnie was also a Monitor and House Representative.

Bonnie plans to enter Indiana University where she will major in Music Therapy.

UNDERCLASS MEMORIES

FACULTY

In the final analysis of this never-completed puzzle that is Hammond High School — the faculty will always stand out as perhaps the only part that is everlasting in its effect on the passing students.

Actually, there is no real puzzle to Hammond High School, merely the combination of multiple facets that are necessary to complete any picture. Everyone is a part of the whole — and the final picture is greater than any of its parts.

Principal
DR. OLIVER L. RAPP

In a relaxing pose seldom enjoyed by Hammond High's energetic principal is Dr. Oliver L. Rapp. He is constantly trying to better the school for the students.

OFFICE WORKERS

Hazel Lindstrom is indispensable as an office worker for all.

Pat Grzybowski cheerfully handles all the problems which arise.

Carol Matson is part of the team which works so hard in the office.

Superintendent of Schools MR. R. B. MILLER

Mr. R. B. Miller in his first year as Superintendent of Hammond Public Schools succeeded Mr. Leo L. Caldwell, who passed away at the close of '59 term. Mr. Miller is already planning new improvements for the schools of Hammond.

Standing, l. to r.: Mr. Dennis Burdock, English; Mrs. Phyllis Smith, Commercial; Mr. Charles Sizemore, Science; Mrs. Vera Webster, Science.

MISS LAURA JOHNSTON

It is indeed difficult to express how we feel when death takes one of our teachers. Often, they are taken for granted, as was Miss Laura Johnston, Jr., counselor and commercial teacher.

Though she was a quiet, reserved person, she was responsible for the clerical practice course at Hammond High School.

As a perfectionist, Miss Johnston expected the best efforts of students and faculty.

A great loss was suffered by all who knew her.

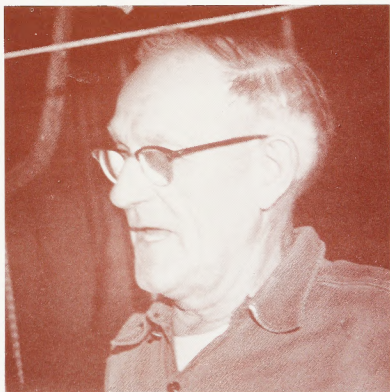

IN MEMORIAM

MR. BILL MEYER

Hammond High was saddened by the death this year of one of its custodians, William "Bill" Meyer.

Always maintaining his sense of fun and humor, Bill will long be remembered by his many friends, faculty and students alike.

Bill gave many years of fine service to Hammond High School.

IN MEMORIAM

HOWARD WAYNE TATUM
Sophomore

Howard Wayne Tatum, a Hammond High sophomore, met sudden death March 29, 1960. The circumstances of his death are better forgotten, but Wayne Tatum will long be remembered by his classmates and friends. While in Miss Katherine Bollenbach's homeroom, Wayne maintained a "B" average and yet found time to participate in school activities. Although we, the students, cannot comprehend the loss his family must feel, we wish to extend our deepest sympathies.

The Dunes Staff on behalf of Wayne's advisory dedicates this page to the memory of Howard Wayne Tatum.

Our Congratulations to the Members of the Senior Class

Phyllis -

The years sure have flown by.
I've enjoyed them all though, and also knowing you in ~~homeroom~~ and some of the classes we've had together.
Your future seems very promising, and I'm sure you'll have the happiest of marriages. Be good, and have fun always! Edwin Pagoda

BOTTLING COMPANY

In East Chicago, Indiana

what's their future

The young people you see in these pictures are all on their way to successful careers in one of America's basic industries . . . steel. They decided (as we hope you will decide) to let Inland Steel Company help them plan their future.

Some are gaining knowledge and experience in special trades to become journeyman machinists, carpenters or electricians . . .

Some are concentrating on certain phases of steelmaking by working in the open hearth shops, the cold rolling mills or the galvanizing lines. Still others are working in laboratories building a sound foundation for a future in steel research.

Inland offers the high school graduate an excellent opportunity to further his education. Employees may participate in a variety of on-the-job training programs, or they can continue their formal education by registering for evening courses offered by local Purdue and Indiana University Extension Centers.

Plan now to investigate the unlimited opportunities for you in steel . . . with the midwest's own steel company . . . INLAND STEEL.
